1. Moderator Clark called to order the regular meeting of the University Senate of December 5, 2016 at 4:00pm.

2. Approval of Minutes of November 7, 2016. Motion to accept by Senator Schultz; seconded by Senator Makowsky; approved unanimously.

3. Report of the Senate Executive Committee
   Presented by SEC member Katharina von Hammerstein

Moderator Clark invited questions from the floor.

Senator Mannheim clarified that his request from last meeting regarding the Student Evaluation of Teaching (SET) was to determine how the administration is using the information. Senator Beall confirmed that the Faculty Standards Committee understands the charge and is working with both the Office of Institutional Effectiveness and the Provost’s Office on the question.

There being no further discussion on the report, Senator von Hammerstein presented a motion on behalf of the Senate Executive Committee.

There was a motion and second to vote on the motion as amended. The motion was carried unanimously.

4. Consent Agenda: passed unanimously

5. Report of the Senate Curricula and Courses Committee
   Presented by Senator Mike Darre

Moderator Clark invited questions from the floor.

Senator Mannheim noted there are more recommendations in the motion than were included in the task force report. Senator Schultz clarified that one recommendation made by the task force was split into two recommendations for the Senate. In the report, the first recommendation was made to improve communication and create a single landing site.
The Senate C&C Committee felt each item was important enough to stand on its own. When asked where the GEOC stands in this process, Senator Darre clarified that the GEOC is a subcommittee of Senate Curricula & Courses

The motion was carried unanimously.

6. New Business
   a. Motion to support USG Resolution Regarding the Protection of Undocumented Students presented by Senator von Hammerstein

Moderator Clark announced that there would be discussion on the USG resolution prior to returning to the SEC motion. Senator Byrd offered background on the USG resolution. He then introduced three students who spoke in support of the motion. Senator Bramble introduced University administrators who offered informational items and background information on the administration’s position, legal standing and current policies. Vice President of Student Affairs Michael Gilbert, Chief of Police Hans Rhynhart and Lesley Salafia from the UConn Office of the General Counsel each offered information. VP Gilbert shared that the administration is working with other departments within the University and that a document detailing the administration’s stance will be coming with the next few days. Chief Rhynhart referenced the UConn Police Department’s policy, confirming that UCPD will not inquire about student’s immigration status nor will anyone be detained solely because of their immigration status. Attorney Salafia confirmed that the University does not maintain a list of undocumented students and therefore, could not provide one even if it were requested. She explained that the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, FERPA, is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. She further explained that there is no legal definition of a “sanctuary city,” “sanctuary municipality” or “sanctuary campus.” UConn already abides by certain elements commonly associated with these terms. This includes providing police protection, not voluntarily providing information to the government, ensuring confidentiality with regards to student records, and restricting services to undocumented students. She did note that the State of Connecticut has not passed a bill that would make undocumented immigrants eligible to compete for financial aid.

Moderator Clark invited questions from the floor.

Senator McCutcheon expressed concern that if UConn violates the law, we could lose access to federal funding. He noted that his vote against the motion has nothing to do with students and everything to do with the mission of our University and the impact this may have on our institution. If an issue arises with student grants because the University does not comply with the federal government, our international graduate students could be at risk. Senator English noted that in the information provided by Student Affairs and the Office of the General Counsel, nothing suggests that the University will willfully violate the law. The resolution confirms that the UConn is unwilling to voluntarily commit university resources to this type of activity. He stressed his stance that it is important to be on the right side of this issue. Senator Sneed, as president of Graduate Student Senate, asserted that the university is a place for equity and that not all laws are just. Senator McCutcheon pointed out that graduate students are paid from federal grants, including for students with visas; there will be a cost that will not be distributed evenly across all departments and faculty.

Senator Beall suggested that the University’s current practices are already in line with what is being asked for in the USG Resolution. He asked if the SEC motion is more to show support for the spirit of the resolution. Senator English agreed it may be true that actual practice is in place and that no one may anticipate a rejection of DACA. He suggested that it is very useful to have a single document endorsed by the Board of Trustees. The collective statement will transcend time and put all concerns in writing. Senators Caira, Byrd and Bramble spoke in favor of the motion. In responding to Senator Mannheim’s questioning of the term “sanctuary city,” Attorney Salafia reiterated that there is no legal definition of the term. The federal government mandates that the University work with U.S. Immigrations and Customs Enforcement. The University cannot refuse to provide information on any student; but UConn does not have such information on students here on a UConn sponsored visa. Senator Beall again requested clarification on what is being asked of the Senate as it appears that the requests in the USG Resolution are part of current practice. Senator Byrd noted that some points in the resolution are affirmations. He stressed the importance of having such a supported document that will transcend time and clearly state the University’s policy. Senator Bramble asked that the resolution be forwarded to the associated student government leadership at the regional campuses. Senators Wogenstein, Deibler, Anagnostopoulos and Gordon spoke in favor of the motion.

A vote on the motion was called for. The motion carried with two nay votes.

b. Motion to add Environmental Literacy to General Education Requirements at UConn
Presented by Senators Clausen, Wagner and Oldziej

Senator Clausen offered background information on the motion. Senator English seconded the motion. When asked about prerequisite requirements for the courses noted in the documentation for the motion, Senator Clausen reported that these are only suggestions for current courses that may satisfy an Environmental Literacy general education requirement. He clarified that proposed courses for any general education requirement need to be co-approved by the GEOC.

Senator Clausen asked that Professor John Volin be recognized to speak in support of the motion. Senator Oldziej asked that undergraduate students Nick Russo, Ben Breslau and Klara Reisch be recognized. Each spoke in support of the motion.

Senator Mannheim recalled that a motion was made 15 years ago to add both History and Environmental Literacy as requirements in general education. Both were rejected. He proposed that the motion be sent to the Senate Curricula and Courses Committee for consideration and noted that is the procedure for bringing modifications to the general education program to the Senate. It was agreed that Senator Mannheim’s motion be tabled to allow discussion of the topic to continue.

Senators Beall, Caira, Wagner and Makowsky spoke in support of the motion. Senator Freake suggested the motion doesn’t go far enough and suggested amending Senator Mannheim’s motion to “refer the matter to the Senate C&C with the charge that they investigate ways of incorporating an environmental literacy requirement into the university’s general education program.” It was noted that due notice is required for motions to change the Senate By-Laws.

Senator von Hammerstein: supports environmental literacy, but also advises that any addition to Gen Ed requirements impacts the entire system of requirement and therefore needs to be carefully considered by GEOC.

There was a call to vote on the amendment made by Senator Freake to Senator Mannheim’s motion. The motion carried with one abstention.

The Senate voted on Senator Mannheim’s motion as amended by Senator Freake to “refer the matter to the Senate C&C with the charge that they investigate ways of incorporating an environmental literacy requirement into the university’s general education program.” The motion carried with two abstentions. The matter is referred to Senate Curricula and Courses Committee.

7. Motion to adjourn by Senator Byrd; seconded by Senator Bresciano; unanimously approved by standing vote of the University Senate.
The meeting was adjourned at 6:24 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Thomas Lawrence Long

*Members who gave advance notice of absence
From SEC Member Katharina von Hammerstein:

Senate Executive Chair Mark Boyer is unable to be with us this afternoon. I am pleased to share the SEC report in his absence.

Good Afternoon,

The Senate Executive Committee has met twice since our last full Senate meeting. On November 18, the SEC met to discuss items brought to the committee and to plan the agenda for this meeting. Much of the discussion focused on campus climate and response and concerns following the national elections. As a result of those conversations, two motions will be brought to the Senate today.

On December 2, the SEC met with Senior Administrators. We received updates on various departments, projects, and programs.

The Senate Executive Committee is pleased to extend our congratulations to Jeremy Teitelbaum on his appointment as Interim Provost. We also congratulate Cameron Faustman as he assumes the role on the interim Dean of the College of Agriculture, Health and Natural Resources. We look forward to working with each and wish them success in their new roles.

A Trustee-Administration-Faculty-Senate Committee (TAFS) meeting is scheduled for December 7. This University By-Law prescribed committee serves as a conference committee to facilitate communication among the groups represented and serves as an advisory body to the Board of Trustees on matters where Board action is requested by faculty or student groups. Complete information on this committee, its members and function can be found in the University By-Laws.

We are pleased to share with you today that nominations are currently being accepted for two different awards programs:

- The Provost’s Outstanding Service Award is designed to honor and recognize those who have demonstrated excellence in service to the University of Connecticut that far exceeds reasonable expectations of their positions. Nominations are due by February 15, 2017. Information on this award can be found on the Office of the Provost website.
- Through the Faculty Excellence Awards, the UConn Foundation Office of Alumni Relations recognizes the outstanding contributions and achievements of UConn faculty. Nominations are due by February 29, 2017. More information is available at uconnalumni.com
In the way of updates, the SEC offers the following information:

- The Task Force on a University Statement for Civility and Free Speech has met and their work is underway.
- At the last Senate meeting, a request was made for an update on the Student Evaluation of Teaching (SET) process. The SEC charged the Senate Faculty Standards Committee with this task. The FSC is currently working with Office of Institutional Research and Effectiveness on this issue and will report back to the Senate Executive Committee, as requested.

Lastly, as previously mentioned, the Senate Executive Committee has had lengthy discussions following the national elections and the impact that may be felt throughout our community. The SEC will present a motion after inviting questions related to this report.

Respectfully Submitted,

Mark Boyer, Chair
Senate Executive Committee
In light of recent events, many in our community have spoken eloquently in support of social justice and academic freedom at our University, as well as throughout the country and world.

On behalf of the Senate Executive Committee, I move that the Senate endorse the following statement inspired by, and adapted from, Dean Teitelbaum’s statement of November 9, 2016:

As a university, we will not compromise on our commitment to diversity and respect for individuals regardless of their politics, race, gender, sexual orientation and mode of expression, national origin, or religious beliefs.

We must continue to support members of our community who are undocumented and/or who have close family members who are undocumented, and with all who now justifiably fear the loss of rights that were only recently gained.

We must remain dedicated to the value of rational discourse, to the value of evidence based in reality, and to the pursuit of truth.

We stand in solidarity with our students, friends, and colleagues in our unwavering commitment to the principles of academic freedom and social justice by which we strive to live.
