c. Concludes with a set of recommendations for how we might begin setting up the infrastructure in ODI and enhance the compacity for advancement in diversity and inclusion throughout the University
d. Plan to finalize the report in January after receiving feedback

Discussion:

i. Likhita: How would President’s commitment would relate to other issues like ableism and sexism. How will students play a role in how equity will be included?
   - The president commitment fund of 100K is open to diversity across many dimensions and emphasize the president’s higher-level goals
   - There is high engagement from leadership and positions are being filled Office of Equity search process from the compliance side to join the partnership
   - Allocating space training and resources to support efforts

ii. Clarissa: ODI implementations for regional campus tremendously important step deserves praise because regional campus needs are not identical to main campus
   - We have national recognition for the work being done at the cultural center and we want to expand

iii. Margaret: In the strategic plan, access and equity go above accountability. How you view the relationship between compliance and accountability. If there are no mechanisms at the department to compel and to hire, they need to understand the problem before held accountable.
   - Evaluating how to capture different areas when everything flows to transformative changes
   - We will be in a position where three units have submitted university plans
3. Plan to see tool to see progress, groups hold themselves accountable
4. Plan to have University wide platform to see accomplishments and to have groups hold themselves accountable
   a. transparency is important need coherent way to share what is happening
